ORDER

AND NOW, this 25th day of November, 2002, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. All discovery shall be completed no later than February 3, 2003.
2. All dispositive motions, including the exchange of expert reports, shall be filed no later than February 17, 2003; responses to such motions shall be filed no later than February 28, 2003. The Parties may file supplemental briefs, however, such filings will not necessarily delay the Court's ruling on the subject motion.
3. A settlement conference will be scheduled with Magistrate Judge Charles B. Smith upon the request of counsel.
4. This case will commence trial on April 21, 2003.
5. Originals of all filings required under this Order shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court, and a courtesy copy of the same shall be submitted to the chambers of the Honorable R. Barclay Surrick (Room 5118).
7. Deadlines for the exchange of trial exhibits and witness lists, motions in limine and other pretrial submissions will be set by further Order of this Court.

8. The unavailability of any witness, as defined in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 32(a)(3), will not be a ground to delay the commencement or progress of an ongoing trial. A party may, however, use oral or videotape depositions at trial of any witness whose testimony a party believes essential to the presentation of that party's case, regardless of whether that witness is a party, a non-party or an expert, provided that such witness, including any witness offered for purpose of impeachment, has been identified to all parties at least thirty (30) days prior to the discovery deadline.

BY THE COURT:

R. Barclay Surrick, Judge
